Referee information sheet

Albukhary International University (AIU) is fully funded by the Albukhary Foundation, Malaysia and all students attending AIU shall be sponsored through the Albukhary Foundation Scholarship. This Scholarship is intended to motivate youth from disadvantaged areas throughout the world who otherwise will not have the financial means to pursue tertiary education to become leaders and contributors in the 21st Century. Successful applicants are expected to achieve high academic standards, to make a positive contribution to their profession and to undertake leadership roles in their community. The Foundation intends to make available ten (10) scholarships for each country to assist disadvantaged youths to graduate with a degree from the AIU. For November 2010 intake, 140 successful students from 24 different countries have been awarded the scholarship. This scholarship is now available for students who can apply to begin their studies at AIU in July 2011 starting with the Foundation Studies Programme.
